

TO CONTEST WILL OF WM. ZIEGLER

A Sister and Two Nieces Reported to Have Begun a Suit for Part of the $30,000,000 Left to Boy.

A report from Los Angeles, to-day states that Mrs. Henry K. Shields, a sister of the late William Ziegler, and two nieces, Mrs. Arthur Little, of Monrovia, Cal., and Mrs. Russell Price, of Duarte, Cal., have begun a suit to contest the will of the multi-millionaire. Mr. Ziegler died last month and left a fortune estimated at $30,000,000 to his only son, a boy named William Ziegler, the only son made in his will of any of his relatives. In the event of the boy's death before he received the legacy then it was to go to the testator's brothers and sisters and their heirs.

CHARLES JORDAN INNOCENT.

Magistrate Discharges Victim of Wrong Testimony.

Charles Jordan, of No. 880 Greenwich street, has just been released from jail after an imprisonment of seven weeks for a crime he did not commit. His family has suffered, he has lost his job and he seems to have no redress. Jordan was arrested on May 9 on a charge of assisting one Thomas O'Brien in holding up and robbing Timothy Curtin, an Ellis Island employee. Curtin swore before Magistrate Wahle, in the West Side Police Court, that O'Brien and Jordan robbed him, and Jordan was held despite his protestations. But when the case reached Judge McMahon in the Court of General Sessions, Curtin went on the stand and said that his testimony at the Magistrate's examination was based on the assurance of Detective Boyle, of the West Forty-seventh Street Station, who said that there could be no mistake about Jordan. Judge McMahon immediately discharged the prisoner.

Ten sensational shirt waist sales all going on at once.

ALL the shirt waists in these sales were bought at a tremendous price concession, because of the backward season, and it is absolutely reasonable that we should offer them at these prices, even if they are lower than any ever quoted in New York on equal styles and qualities. The manufacturer's sacrifice is in proportion to the following reductions—

All the $1.75 lawn shirtwaists are now $1.00.
All the $2.25 lawn shirtwaists are now $1.50.
All the $2.95 lawn shirtwaists are now $1.95.
All the $3.50 lawn shirtwaists are now $2.25.
All the $5.00 lawn shirtwaists are now $3.25.
All the $7.50 lawn shirtwaists are now $5.00.
All the $12.95 lawn shirtwaists are now $7.95.
All the $18.95 lawn shirtwaists are now $10.00.

The lawns are the sheerest qualities. Hundreds have solid embroidered fronts—hundreds of others have lace insertion and embroidery trimming, and still others are trimmed with fine hand embroidery. Each great offering is a proven bargain sensation in itself. Monday and Tuesday again demonstrated that Simpson Crawford Co. are doing the shirt-waist selling of New York. We have bought every surplus stock and sample line in stock. There are tens of thousands of waists, but at the rate they're selling it's only a question of days until all these phenomenal values will be gone. You can't afford to put off buying. We do not know of a single lot of waists any other store can obtain and offer such bargains.

We sold 1,000 Jap silk $5.00 waists at $2.98 Monday.

THAT'S all we had, but we've another thousand just like them for to-morrow. Trimmed in dainty tucks and laces—a perfect washable quality—real beauties in style and fit.

All $5.00 Jap silk waists, $2.98. All $15.00 Jap silk waists, $6.95.

SIMPSON CRAWFORD CO.

$22.50 Summer costumes, $14.75. Sheer, beautiful silk-finished mull.

A SALE of utmost importance to all smart dressers desiring fashionable gowns for afternoon, evening and reception wear during the Summer.

THE manufacturer who made up these stunning costumes, especially for Thursday's sale, so that we might easily excel a record sale a year ago to-morrow, guaranteed every costume to equal in style, fit, quality and finish the $25 and $35 dresses of exclusive dressmakers. If you are hesitating about attending the event THAT should decide the matter for you in time for you to secure a costume before they are all sold. There's just one thing about it—if you could see them you'd have one SURE. It's a woman's nature to wish for pretty things, especially pretty clothes, and these are decidedly the prettiest Summer Creations in New York.

Copied from the French in a soft, silk finished mull, the daintiest fabric for afternoon, evening and reception. Pink, blue, tan and violet are the shades you could imagine any more becoming or delicate?

Here's the way they're made: Solid lace yoke, finished with Swiss embroidery, pointed effect, extending down over full waist of 5 1/2-inch tucks, short sleeves with several rows of lace, and finished with a deep soft satin girde of same color—skirt made full with nine deep tucks, made over fine white organdie drop—also cotton volles in the new shades, with little figures and beautifully trimmed with German Val insertion and fine lace—also a pretty new model of plain organdie— we'll not have a single costume left at 6 o'clock to-morrow evening. Special, $14.75.

A surprise in store for all at $10. Another model especially for to-morrow.

Several new stylish models in white and colors. Fine, sheer organdies in all the pretty pastel shades and elaborately trimmed with plat Val lace and insertion—made over entire white organdie slips—also dainty Persian lawns in plain white, full bodice, entirely trimmed with lace and insertion—full skirt, tucked and lace trimmed—costume is finished with crush girde of taffeta—also a new model of dainty flowered organdies.
